

Dear FCC

please do not allow continued erosion of the cross-ownership ban by media conglomerates. It is already hard enough to get a wide variety of accurate views from existing sources. Further limiting the number of sources by allowing one company to control many will not serve my interests nor those of the American public.

Thank you.